We would love for you to join us for the 2010 Bolivar Strawberry Festival! Last year we had over 5,000 area residents attending. What a wonderful opportunity for you to showcase your crafts!

Note: All items must be handcrafted—not purchased at local craft shops to be resold.

Cost of space is $50 to be submitted with the application.

Total space per exhibitor is approximately 15' x 10'.

All exhibitors are expected to bring their own tables and chairs.

Exhibitors needing utilities must make their request known one week in advance.

All exhibitors must provide some type of cover for their area, i.e. small canopy, etc.

Times are as follows:

June 17 and 18, 4 pm until dusk

June 19, 10 am until dusk

Deadline for all applications is May 22, 2010

If you have any questions, please contact Rebecca Hubble at 330.874.8519. Please leave a message with your phone number if there is no response. Your call will be returned as soon as possible.

You will be notified of your reservation status by June 1. At that time, information will be given regarding set up times and parking.

We look forward to hearing from you!
